

Legislative Choice between Delegated and Implementing Acts

Workshop Programme 20 March 2017

Venue: Deutsche Universität für Verwaltungswissenschaften Speyer,
Tagungsgebäude „Otto Mayer“, Vortragssaal

- 9:15 Introduction: Wolfgang Weiß, Eljalill Tauschinsky
Keynote: Joana Mendes (University of Luxembourg)
- 9:40 Panel 1
Executive Rule-Making Powers, Legitimacy and Institutional Balance in EU Law
Claudia Fuchs and Attila Vincze (WU Wien and Andrássy University Budapest)
The impact of the Better regulation policy on delegated and implementing rule-making
Francois Lafarge (ENA and University of Strasbourg)
Competition between Articles 290 and 291 TFEU: what are these two articles about?
Dmitri Zdobnõh (University of Bologna)
- 11:15 Coffee
- 11:30 Panel 2
Delegated and implementing powers: towards legal confusion and political distinction in environmental matters?
Emilie Chevalier (University of Limoges)
The legislative choice between delegated and implementing acts in the regulation of pharmaceuticals
Sabrina Wirtz (Maastricht University)
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30 Panel 3
Lisbon Comitology & Tertiary Law – The example of food law: application requirements, fine-tuning of scope, positive and negative lists
Jens Karsten (bxl-law, Brussels)
EU Delegation of Rule-Making Power in the field of Financial Markets
Matteo Ortino (University of Verona)
- 14:30 Coffee
- 14:45 Panel 4
The conferral of powers to EU agencies: the case of delegated and implementing acts
Marios Costa and Michael Kaeding (City University London and University of Duisburg-Essen)
Beyond delegated and implementing acts: a third demarcation line?
Merijn Chamon (Ghent University)
Delegated powers in EU external relations: In between legislative and non-legislative acts
Andrea Ott (Maastricht University)
- 16:15 Coffee
- 16:30 Critical Remarks
Gijs Jan Brandsma (Utrecht University)
- 17:15 Summary and Conclusion
Eljalill Tauschinsky, Wolfgang Weiß