

FACULTY

Professor Dr. Michael W. Bauer
Chair of Comparative Public
Administration and Policy-Analysis
Program director
Speyer University

Dr. William G. Resh, Ph.D.
Associate Professor of Governance,
Management, & the Policy Process
Program director
University of Southern California

Dr. Denvil R. Duncan, Ph.D.
Associate Professor
Program director
Indiana University, O'Neill School

Professor Dr. Constanze Janda
Chair of Social Law and Public Administration
Speyer University

*Professor Dr. Dr. h.c.
Andreas Knorr*
Chair of Economics: Economic and
Transport Policy
Speyer University

Professor Dr. Rahel Schomaker
Chair of Economics and Public Administration
Carinthia University of Applied Sciences
Kärnten, Austria and
Senior Fellow at GRIP, Speyer

STAFF

Andrea Arendt
Program coordinator
Speyer University
arendt@uni-speyer.de

Kirstin Grunenberg
Head of International Office
Speyer University
grunenberg@uni-speyer.de

REGISTRATION

Registration is open to students of Speyer University,
Indiana University (O'Neill School), University of Southern California (USC) and their respective cooperation partners.

Contacts

O'Neill students

Jessica Corry and Kaitlyn Lattimer

Phone: +1-812 856-2968

jfischba@indiana.edu and kflagg@indiana.edu

USC students

William G. Resh

Phone: +1-443-838-5220, wresh@price.usc.edu

International students

Kirstin Grunenberg

Phone: +49-6232-654-253, grunenberg@uni-speyer.de

Speyer University students

Kerstin Reiland

Phone: +49-6232-654-227, reiland@uni-speyer.de

Public Policy and Administration in Germany, the European Union and the United States

Summer Studies On the Rhine

18 May – 19 June 2020

www.uni-speyer.de/de/studium/otr.php

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Speyer University, The O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs and USC Price School offer a joint summer program on comparative public policy and administration in Germany, the European Union, and the United States. Five seminars will provide an overview of major topics of public management, European economic integration, multilevel policy-making in the EU, German Federalism in the EU, and Jurisdiction of the European Court of Justice.

The program will present students from Germany, the United States and other countries with a unique opportunity to study issues of public policy and administration in an interdisciplinary and international environment.

Further highlights of the program will be excursions to political institutions in Luxemburg and Brussels, Belgium, the European Central Bank in Frankfurt, the picturesque city of Heidelberg and the European Parliament and the ECHR in Strasbourg (France).

Graduate students and select undergraduates will participate in the program as part of their regular program in public administration. The O'Neill students are able to receive up to 6 credit points. USC students (graduates and undergraduates) who complete the course earn 6 units.

Credit options for other international students depend on specific agreements with their home institutions. Speyer University students are welcome to participate in one seminar or in the overall program. Please consult the program website for further information:
<http://www.uni-speyer.de/de/studium/otr.php>

The German University of Administrative Sciences is the primary center of research, postgraduate studies and executive training in the field of public administration in Germany. Funded by the federal government and all federal states, Speyer University works in close cooperation with German state institutions. www.uni-speyer.de/

COURSES

A comparative perspective on public administration in the EU, Germany and the US

Michael W. Bauer, William G. Resh & Denvil Duncan

- » Origins and phases of theorizing about public administration
- » Parliaments and (their) bureaucracies
- » Case Study: The Internal Revenue Service
- » Political approaches to public personnel administration
- » The structure and accountability of regulatory agencies
- » Administrative reforms
- » Politics of budgeting in US, EU, and Germany
- » Politicized Bureaucracy

European economic integration

Andreas Knorr

- » Introduction to European economic integration
- » Selected EU policies I: competition policy and state aid control
- » Selected EU policies II: the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) and the EU's tax harmonization approach
- » European Economic Disintegration I: the "Euro crisis"
- » European Economic Disintegration II: BREXIT and the EU's immigration crisis

The O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University, USA is renowned for cutting-edge research and world-class teaching. Its graduate program is among the top two programs for public affairs in the nation, according to the influential rankings from U.S. News & World Report. <https://oneill.indiana.edu/index.html>

COURSES

EU institutions and multilevel policy-making

Rahel Schomaker

- » Institutional Development and Theoretical Interpretations of the EU Integration Process
- » The Main Actors And Their Role in EU Policy-Making
- » The Main Decision making Procedures
- » The Future of the EU—Crises and Challenges

Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms in the Jurisdiction of the European Court of Justice

Constanze Janda

- » Introduction to European constitutional law
- » The Right to Equality and Non-Discrimination
- » The Right to Asylum
- » Migration and the Right to Social Security
- » The Right of Collective Bargaining and Action

German federalism in the EU

Michael W. Bauer

- » Introduction to the political system of the Federal Republic of Germany
- » Party system and party politics (Special emphasis: Federal elections 2017)
- » European Parliament, Brexit, and Germany
- » Unitary Federalism
- » Wrap-up/ Extra session: Germany and the US in the Age of Trump

The Sol Price School of Government at the University of Southern California, USA, focuses on interdisciplinary research and teaching in innovative solutions to problems of public management. It ranked sixth among "America's Best Graduate Schools" for public affairs in the U.S. News & World Report in 2012. www.priceschool.usc.edu