

OTR 2020 – INFORMATION FOR SPEYER UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

There are two options for you to participate in the “On the Rhine” program:

- a) You can participate in the whole OTR program. This means you take part in three seminars on EU policy-making, German federalism and public administration in comparative perspective as well as in one elective course of your choice, either European economic integration or Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms in the jurisdiction of the European Court of Justice. In this case, please apply by contacting Andrea Arendt (arendt@uni-speyer.de) by March 31, 2020 and you will get a link to our online registration form.

If you participate in the whole program, you will be guaranteed a place in the four seminars mentioned above.

- b) You can also enroll in any number of these individual seminars of the OTR program:
- A comparative perspective on public administration in the EU, Germany, and the US, Profs Bauer/Resh/Duncan (S 201)
 - European economic integration, Prof. Knorr (S 302)
 - Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms in the Jurisdiction of the European Court of Justice , Prof. Janda (S 103)

In this case, please apply via Speyer University's online registration system.

The course catalogue has information on the modules in which these courses are offered.

Please consider that the OTR seminars will be taught irregularly between May and June 2019 and have a look at the OTR time table on the program website.
